Discontent Over Hoover Message In Congress

Grumbings Occurring
About Capital Sound
Ominous To Leaders

Natural Opposition of Democrats Bolstered
By Dissenting Factions In Both Houses;
Long, Torrid Session Seems Probable

Washington, April 17.—The political scene until they crash headlong, as far as President Hoover is concerned.

With the echo of his first message still reverberating around the halls of Capitol hill, it became readily apparent that Mr. Hoover's ideas on tariff and farm relief are in for a period of rough sledding in the congress that rode into power with him. There is the natural opposition of the Democrats, of course, but the extent of disagreement within his own party is wider than had been generally anticipated.

May Be Long Session

If the quite general grumbings of the opening days is translated into effective oppositions, it is wholly probable that dog-days will see the first session of the 71st congress still shoring and sweetening in Washington heat.

Summarized, the situation affecting Mr. Hoover's recommendations of the new congress, follows:

Agriculture — many Republicans from the grain-belt are either open antagonistic or quietly dissatisfied with the farm proposals. The Senate agriculture committee is threatening to include in its bills the so-called debenture plan, which Mr. Hoover has never endorsed, which he ignored in his message, but which his friends say he does not approve.

Privately, they are criticizing his message for "lack of definiteness" in specific propositions. The House agriculture committee is bringing a resolution for changing the basis of valuation from European to American in some schedules.

While there is general support for limited upward revision, instead of general revision, party leaders are fearful that once it gets onto the floor the you-scratch-my-back-and-I-scratch-yours spirit that is always present when it comes down to voting on specific schedules will play havoc with the limitation plans.

There is also considerable opposition to giving the tariff commission any broader powers, as recommended by Mr. Hoover.

Immigration — the president recommended repeal or suspension of the national origins clause, which becomes operative on July 1. Leadership in the fight against this will come from the president's own party.

IN NEW MERGER

Pottery Factories To Join In Largest Combine In Nation

DETAILS OF MOVE
NOT COMPLETED

Sebring, Liverpool And Salineville Companies
Mentioned

Cleveland, April 17.—Organization of the American Chinaware corporation, a merger of seven and possibly two or three more of the largest pottery companies in the state, was formally announced today at the offices of W. B. Stewart, legal counsel and temporary chairman of the board of directors.

No intimation of the official personnel nor the names of the companies involved in the combine, which will be perhaps the largest pottery concern in the world, was furnished.

The big combine has been incorporated in Ohio, Stewart said, with the following stock issues: 150,000 shares, cumulative 7 percent preferred, par value $100; 450 shares class A no par value common; and 40,000 shares class B no par value common.

It was announced that legal details regarding the transfer of stock and other properties had not been completed and that this would require several days.

Name Firms Concerned

It was learned on reliable authority, that the following companies are probably included in the merger: Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, of East Liverpool; National China company, Salineville; Sebring Pottery company and Saxon China company, Sebring; Pope-Cosser China company, Coshocton; Carroll Pottery company, Carrollton; and possibly three or four others, located at Steubenville, Cambridge or Minerva.

The Merger is said to have been conceived originally by Lewis Porter, of Chicago, a furniture store owner and a large buyer of pottery products. Whether Porter would be included in the list of officers of the new combine was not announced but it is believed he will be one of the heads of the concern.

It was rumored that an eastern merchant of national reputation had been offered the presidency of the corporation but this was denied at the offices of Stewart with the statement that no officers had been selected yet.

Their program is entertaining and diversified, musically throughout; the very interesting chorus numbers being interspersed with solo numbers by Rowland T. Kaufman, tenor; Miss Mildred Weaver, soprano and Miss Ruth Beard, reader. A feature of the program will be the introduction of Edith Calhoun and her "Four Vagabonds," a novel male quartet singing comical selections. About 20 automobiles will be used to convey the Apollo organization and its friends here the night of the concert. COUNCIL ELECTS
FRANK ROLLINS

First Ward Councilman
Succeeds P. J. Dean
In Office

Frank L. Rollins, first ward councilman, was elected vice-president of Salem city council, last night, to succeed P. J. Dean, who at the meeting last week was selected to fill the presidency, left vacant by the death of Harry A. Gager, former president.

Rollins' election to the post was unopposed.

The appointment of Samuel Kraus, Euclid st., to fill the vacancy caused by President Dean's advancement from a regular council seat to the president's chair, was confirmed by Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston.

Kraus was placed on the finance and appropriation and water committee, with which Dean was connected as chairman. Councilman Max Adler was named chairman of the finance group and W. U. Miller was appointed head of the water committee by President Dean.

The changes in the personnel were necessary following the sudden death of Mr. Gager three weeks ago. Dean resigned his seat as third ward representative, following his appointment by Mayor Hiddleston to succeed the late president, Kraus being elected immediately after, to fill his position.

Rollins was nominated for the office by Councilman George Slocum. The second was made by Councilman R. J. Burns. No other candidate was nominated.

Youthful Bandit
In Law Toils As
Ruse Is Success

Cleveland, April 17.—A 17 year old robber was under arrest here today after seeking assistance in obtaining employment, which had been offered him by a man whom he held up.

Joseph Frye, teller in an east side bank, relates that he was sitting in an automobile with a friend Sunday night when the youthful bandit approached and took $1 from Frye and $5 from his friend at the point of a pistol.

"I hate to do this," the youth remarked, "but I haven't been able to get a job. I'm hard up."

Frye offered to help him and asked the youth to see him at the bank. When the boy arrived yesterday, Frye covered him with a pistol until police arrived. The youthful prisoner probably will be turned over to juvenile authorities.

SHERIFF MAKES SAFETY REQUEST

Asks Cooperation In War
Against One-Light
Driver

Sheriff William J. Barlow issued a request for cooperation of the Columbiana County Automobile association members in the elimination of automobiles operating in the county several weeks ago. Barlow states, and has received the support of the majority of drivers. Instances where cars are operated without the required number of headlights are still found, the sheriff insists.

"The sheriff is to be commended in his efforts to eliminate this danger," Morris stated. "We feel that he can anticipate the full support of all A. A. members in his worthwhile campaign, and all county motorists should cooperate."

Every driver should carry spare headlights in his car, Morris stated, in order to replace faulty lights. The fact that few localities make arrests where lights may be repaired with spare bulbs immediately should be an incentive for this, he states.

POLICE SEARCH FOR FIVE WIVES

Elizabeth N. J., April 17.—New Jersey authorities today broadcast a nation-wide appeal for police cooperation to rend the curtain they believe cloaks the kaleidoscope love affairs of Henry Colin Campbell, white-haired "bluebeard" and torch slayer.

With the confession of the mid-die-aged lothario to the brutal murder and subsequent cremation of Mrs. Mildred Mowry already in their hands, police today wanted to learn the whereabouts of five of his seven "wives," who, if they are still alive, have not yet come forward to confront Campbell.

Two are "accounted for," as one investigator grimly put it. They are his present wife, Rowley, who clings tenaciously to the hope that Campbell will escape the electric chair, and Mrs. Mowry.

FEDERAL CHARGE
AGAINST P. J. GROH

Former Dover Mayor To Face U. S. Authorities
After Raid

New Philadelphia, O., April 17.—Ex-mayor Peter J. Groh, of Dover, Ohio, "down the street from here," is to be taken from jail here today by federal authorities who will escort him to Canton, Ohio, where he will be arraigned in federal court on liquor conspiracy charges.

Groh was arrested by state prohibition agents on March 21, and placed into jail here, charged with accepting a bribe from a state dry agent to allow a mythical carload of liquor to be run through Dover unmolested, and then released under $10,000 bond.

About two weeks later he was "ousted" from office as mayor of Dover, Ohio, a community of 8,000 people, and "twin-sister city" to New Philadelphia.

Yesterday, Groh was arraigned on these charges in a state court. He pleaded not guilty and was released on bond.

A short time later, the sheriff here arrested the man for Cleveland federal authorities, and put him in jail again. He is to be prosecuted by federal authorities on charges growing out of a raid on the Venice Tavern, Tuscarawas county roadhouse near here, in which dry agents are said to have found liquor and beer. Groh is owner of the building, police allege.

The warehouse of the Natural Gas company of West Virginia, situated on Vine st., was slightly damaged by fire, occurring shortly after midnight last night.

The fire is reported by Fire Chief Vincent L. Malloy to have started from boxes, piled up too close to a stove. Firemen were called to the scene of the blaze at 12:04 a. m.

The fire was centered on the second floor, in the west end of the building. Firemen poured streams of chemicals on it for 45 minutes.

Gas company officials today stated damage was slight.

Large Soft Water Supply Offered In Report To Council

Dam, Purification Plant and Gravity Line To Cost $315,000; Lower Rates Promised
Domestic and Industrial Users

Proposal that a dam be built in Butler township, about two miles west of the city to provide a supply of soft water for Salem, was submitted to city council Tuesday night by the water committee appointed by former Mayor George E. Russell.

The project consists in the development of the upper waters of the north branch of the Mahoning river, known as the Butler project, for the supply of the city by storage to be created by the erection of a dam and a purification plant. The water would be transported to the city by means of a gravity line.

This reservoir, or lake, would yield 3,000,000 gallons of water a day. At present the Salem waterworks is pumping an average of 800,000 gallons daily.

HIDDLESON ASKS
SOLONS TO RUSH
WATER PROJECT

Mayor Submits Report
Of Committee To City Council

Request that immediate action be taken by city council on the report of the Salem water commission was made to solons by Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston, Tuesday night.

"I am not here to take a stand either in favor or in opposition to the recommended project," the mayor stated. "I wish only the precipitate action, as this matter involves the city of Salem for the greatest financial project ever undertaken by the city of Salem."

Hiddleston formally submitted the report of the committee to council, and petitioned legislators to give the matter deep and careful consideration.

"Such a project as this involves investigation from all angles, and I suggest that your body conduct this careful study, and be prepared to submit a report as soon as possible," he told the solons.

His recommendations that action be rushed were based on statements in the water committee's report, which stated that options on land included in the contemplated project will expire Sept. 1st, and unless some disposition is undertaken by the body immediately, delays may prove expensive to the city.

He congratulated the committee men on the report with the statement that "they deserve the thanks of the city of Salem for the excellent work exemplified in the report."

P. J. Dean, president of council, referred the issue to the water committee, which will meet with the remainder of the body as committee of the whole for the plan's consideration.

Complete Report From Water Committee

Salem, Ohio, April, 1929
To the Honorable Council of the City of Salem, Ohio.

Gentlemen: Pursuant to the resolution passed by your honorable body, a committee, known as the Salem Water Committee, was appointed by the Mayor of the City of Salem and said committee respectfully submits its report as follows:

The Salem Water Committee was appointed as a result of the sentiment that has been manifested from time to time in favor of a new source of water supply of a somewhat different quality and also one that would prove adequate for the future growth and development of the city of Salem for many years.

Youngstown Engineer

The committee undertook, in the first instance, a preliminary survey of the available sources of supply and on account of the great benefit and development that has resulted to the city of Youngstown on account of the number and extent of the reservoirs that have been constructed in that territory for the use of the city of Youngstown, the attention of the committee was called to the several successful projects and resulted in securing the services of the late David M. Wise, Civil Engineer of 223 West Wood Street, Youngstown, Ohio, who had been in charge of the greater part of the development of the various water companies operating in the Youngstown territory.

The engineer carefully investigated all sources of supply for the city of Salem, including the present well supply and the supply known as the Butler Project was considered the most feasible and economical source of supply.

Butler Project

Real Estate and Rights of Way.

Cost of the Butler project is estimated at $315,000, including purchase of land and construction of dam, gravity line and purification plant. The result would be a substantial reduction in rates to industrial and domestic consumers, the committee advises.

The report was submitted by W. H. Dunn, William Kaminsky, W. L. Strain and F. J. Enany. R. C. Garrison, member of the original committee, died before the report was completed.

Recommendation

This committee reported to council that it is unanimously of opinion that the project is a feasible and reasonable one, and that it constitutes a program for development of the city of Salem and the welfare of all of its inhabitants and respectfully recommends the taking of necessary steps and the passage of the required legislation to carry the proposed plan into execution.

In its investigations and preparation of a proposal the committee obtained the services of David M. Wise, engineer of Youngstown, who died recently.

The location of the Butler project is west of the city and to the south of the Cox highway. It is estimated that there will be 384 acres of flowage and that a total of 640 acres would have to be purchased. In order to protect the city against excessive demands by property owners, the committee secured options for the purchase of the land. These options expire Sept. 1, 1929.

Estimate of Cost

Preliminary estimate of the cost of the Butler project is given by the engineer as follows:

Land, $70,000; clearing, $7,600; rights of way, $6,000; dam, $110,000; road rectification $15,000; 16 inch gravity pipe line, $132,000; purification plant, $55,000; total, $296,250; engineering and contingencies, $18,750; grand total, $315,000.

The site of the proposed dam would be one and one-half miles south of the state road and the road would have to be raised for about 1200 feet to take care of the back water. The north and south road extending along the farm lands to Aspirants to bridge honors outside their own circle will be given their much-desired opportunity, in Salem, Thursday and Friday nights, when the first annual tri-county tournament will be held at the Memorial building.

Clubs and various unattached players from several cities in Columbiana, Mahoning and Stark counties have signed for the competition, which is expected to make the Salem community center the scene for several hundred bridge enthusiasts.

Much interest is being shown in the affair, Joe M. Kelley, director of the Memorial building, announced today. Trophies to be awarded in the men's and women's bridge contests and the open tournament have been ordered, and plans for the entertainment of the players expected have been almost completed.

Those expecting to enter should submit their names, together with entrance fees as soon as possible, Miss Dora Chandler, manager of women's activities at the building stated today, in order that those in charge of the tournament may set tables and

WALL OF WATER
SWEEPS VILLAGE

Martins Ferry, O., April 17.—Water, seeping through into the abandoned Yorkville mine, at Yorkville, near here, following two days of heavy rain, burst from the pit mouth today and swept down a 100-foot embankment into a residential section of Yorkville, doing heavy property damage.

No estimate of the loss could be made at this time.

Several persons narrowly escaped death or injury when the wall of water came down upon the city.

Portions of streets were also washed away.

Though the heaviest flow of water had ceased, shortly after noon, the water continued to stream from the mine.

The mine is owned by the Yorkville Mining company.

HERO WORSHIP

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who became the hero of the American public when he flew across the Atlantic, is tiring of the adulation which is constantly thrust upon him.

On April 12 he landed at Washington. The inevitable crowd of hero worshippers surged forward to look and paw. The colonel manipulated his plane in such a manner as to splash water on them and taxied to the other end of the field to escape. For this act, he was soundly berated the next day in a Washington newspaper.

The paper begged to call his attention to the fact, among other things, that he would not always be a hero and that he had better take advantage of the present attitude of the public.

It is doubtful that Col. Lindbergh wants to be a hero. The whole thing has been more or less thrust upon him. His great flight was not made to attain publicity, but to prove that it could be done. The hero worship was an inevitable result. The public, naturally enough, has claimed him for its own and the fact that, in a moment of exasperation, he accidentally splashed them with mud rankles their mob pride.

The Belling field incident was not the first display of impatience on the part of the Lone Eagle. His recent statements, when he was taken to task for not telling the world where he spent the night, were even more pointed rebukes than mud splashing. A number of months ago, after a landing at the Cleveland airport, he gave vent to his disgust with the public's attitude in a few terse, pithy statements.

It is very likely that Col. Lindbergh could tolerate the attention that he is given, if it were accompanied by a display of good taste. He has never withheld courtesy from those who approached him in a courteous manner. It is the neurotic attitude of the sweet young thing who wants to touch him for the perverted thrill that she obtains that causes unfortunate actions like the one in which he indulged himself at Washington.

Criticism of the great aviator is uncalled for and ungrounded. If the people of this nation cannot show some degree of moderation in their frenzied efforts to deprive a gentleman of privacy, they must expect some opposition from the gentleman. After all, he is only human and most of his worshippers would have cut loose and done something indiscreet long before the well-contained colonel did. Until admirers can learn to treat their heroes with consideration, criticism of his actions are entirely cut of the realm of their jurisdiction.

What Others Say

PANTS IN PERSIA.

At no far distant day it won't be any more fun being a Persian or a Turk than a staid American business man. For now, in addition to taking away their turbans and fezzes, abolishing the multitudinous wives and making them go to school, the Shah of Persia has decreed that menfolk in those parts must wear trousers instead of robes.

When Kemal decreed that the derby must replace the fez for the Turk the tourist agencies gave forth sob's of anguish, for there went some of the scenery that makes touring what it is today. Later the Shah followed suit, and while the fact that his order made it possible for a German cap company to unload 2,000,000 cheap caps in that land, there has been no hint of commiseration to date. Apparently western types of living are following on the heels of western hygiene.

Shahs will never have the same allure in plaid caps and overalls, but then the world has come back that the sheik of true type is a greasy, fat, disagreeable and far from romantic individual, anyhow, so this pant order may not change things very much for the story writers. We do hope, however, that the Shah meant real pants and not golf trousers, for in the latter instance it wouldn't be possible to determine whether the Persian under scrutiny had on pants as prescribed by the Shah or only the lower half of a robe. —Miami Herald.

The Stars Say —

For Thursday, April 18

THE planetary aspects for this day, both by lunar and mutual configuration, hold promise of many possibilities of advancement, promotion, honors, preferment, but these are apt to be won by indomitable courage and perseverance, complicated by strategy, tact, or diplomacy rather than by aggressiveness. Suppress restlessness and variability of judgment, beware subtlety of fraud and safeguard the funds, but forge ahead to the goal of the ambitions.

These whose birthday it is are confronted by a year of excellent prospects with promotion and increase in employment, honors or preferment elsewhere, but these must be worked for with sound judgment, tact and possibly some subtle manipulation. Beware of fraud, misunderstanding and protect the finances. A child born on this day may be conspicuously talented and capable, and may attain high position, but these must be won by tact and diplomacy and suppressing restless and variable tendencies. It should be taught thrift and prudence.

CARE IN INFANCY MAY INSURE HEALTH

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

Some days ago I had occasion to mention the report of an address made by a noted neurologist. This doctor is quoted as saying that "the fate of a child destined for insanity is sealed before its birth."

It is not fair to draw conclusions without a full reading of the address. It may well be that this single sentence does not do justice to the doctor's real meaning. I hope it does not. Life would be seriously marred if there were no hope of escape from the thrall of heredity.

I have too much faith in Nature, as well as in science, to believe that a baby is predestined and fore-ordained to the damnation of insanity. Admitting the menace of a bad family history, I am bound to believe that insanity is not inevitable.

A further reading of the newspaper report gives a glimmer of hope.

The eating habits, respect for morals, the control of the emotions

—all these are established in the home. Without proper training in youth, I agree that the bad heredity of the child will assert itself.

Mother love is the most compelling and most sincere thing in all the world. It always lurches me to say a thing that may offend a devoted mother. But we must admit that many a child has been spoiled by too much attention of one sort and not enough for another.

To yield to every whim of the child, to seek to anticipate its every want, to indulge its every desire—in these we have evidence of giving too much attention, and attention of the wrong sort.

To watch its food and eating practices, to see that the rules of simple hygiene are observed—in these we have evidence of proper attention.

Care of this sort will be rewarded in the good health and increasing vigor of the child.

If the environment is what it should be, if the kindly direction of the parents is unflinching, if every evidence of ill-health and physical defect is quickly treated, we may expect the child to overcome its hereditary tendencies in the great majority of cases.

What is to become of the adult is determined largely in infancy and youth. If we do our part in that period, we have reasonable expectation that all will be well.

88TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF OHIO PASSES

Bills Sent To Chief Executive In Routine Meeting

BENDER MEASURE DRAWING COMMENT

Sponsor and Enemy To Meet In Debate On Measure

Columbus, O., April 17.—The 88th general assembly of Ohio passed into history today. At a brief routine session yesterday, the senate sent 159 signed bills to the governor, upon which that chief executive must act within ten days.

Probably more important than the passage was the sentiment expressed by Senator George H. Bender's so-called "equal representation referendum." Members of both houses, either announced their opposition or remained silent, which boded ill for the fight for reapportionment of the state legislature being made by the Cleveland "war-horse."

Committees Appointed
Over a hundred thirty representatives were in the house, and 12 members were present in the senate, when the legislature adjourned sine die.

Several committees were appointed yesterday. They included the committee to investigate the proposed acquisition of the state of the antislavery of Thomas A. Edison at Milan, O.

When the representatives sat down in their desks in the lower chamber yesterday, they were greeted by a letter from Dallas Sullivan, fellow member, who is leading the fight on the part of the rural districts against the proposed referendum which, according to Bender, seeks to break "the rural majority in the legislature."

Bender began his real fight last night when he began circulation of the petition for referendum after Attorney General Gilbert Bettman has agreed to it as "fair and impartial." Sullivan and Bender are to meet in a debate at Cleveland tomorrow night, and the odds that will be bet then will "be heard around the state."

Against Bender Plan
Rep. H. F. Autt, Mt. Gilead, who is serving his fourth term in the house and who is one of the outstanding farm leaders in the legislature, declared he "was hard against" the Bender referendum.

R. D. Williamson, Xenia representative, declared that "Bender has said something that he never will say."

William Guard, stated, "It would give the big cities absolute control of the legislature and as the cities are largely foreign, the would amount to alien control."

Sen. Paul M. Herbert, Columbus, who has always been a staunch supporter of Bender in the senate, said that while he feels that the referendum is "entirely right in principle," he is not sure that "sentiment is sufficiently crystallized to warrant it coming up for a vote at this time."

That seemed to be the sentiment of all the legislators and it darkened the prospects for passage of the Bender referendum.

Unless the governor recalls the 88th general assembly into "extraordinary session" to transact some specific business or to meet an emergency, the present legislature will never meet again.

PLYMOUTH AUTO SALON PLANNED

Special Display Arranged For Salem On Week Of April 27th

Plymouth motor car dealers throughout the United States are preparing for a National Display and Demonstration, starting April 22 and ending on April 27. During this period the public is invited not only to view these Chrysler-built cars, but to receive a road demonstration during which they may experience how smoothly the Plymouth performs and how comfortable are these full sized cars.

The Smith Garage, Salem Plymouth dealer has been busy for the past several weeks preparing for this display and demonstration at his showroom.

On the night of Saturday, April 20, declares Mr. Smith, "we will draw the curtain at the Plymouth showroom on one of the most unique displays of automobiles ever exhibited in this city. Here we will show the beautiful, stylish but low-priced Chrysler-built Plymouth car in all its spring glory and beauty. There will be a wide variety of new, sparkling spring colors and smart color combinations and we will announce some very important mechanical improvements. The motor is a real gem, which during the past few weeks has looked over other cars in the low price field, now has the opportunity of viewing a low-priced car which in appearance and performance belies its price tag.

Whalen Hits Hard At Texas "Whoopie" Producing Plant

New York, April 17.—Texas Guinan's joking proclivities and verbosity are unquestioned but she appears to have talked herself into difficulties which she may not be able to laugh off.

Unable to close her whoopee resort under the curfew law which arbitrarily orders night clubs closed by 3 a. m., a lengthy squad of process servers, armed with summonses, descended on the club and today turned its atmosphere of gaiety into cheerless, drab reality.

The first inking of Commissioner Grover Whalen's new strategy came when detectives served summonses on the club management charging operation of a cabaret without a license. The summons is returnable Monday and, until then, the star performer at the club will be a phlegmatic patrolman, stationed there to see there is no entertainment in the club between now and then.

Their first objective attained, other detectives trooped in en masse and served summonses impartially. The chef, cook and waiters were each presented with court order charging violation of the sanitary code in not having permits from the board of health to serve food.

Next, two other detectives stepped briskly in and arrested two waiters, charging them with possession of liquor.

Texas, the little girl who defied Whalen's closing edict on the ground the club was a restaurant adjunct, missed all the excitement. It was explained she was at home—"indisposed."

ty. Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania, will lead it, and back of him and flooding congress with appeals and propaganda stand a long list of patriotic and defense organizations, including the American Legion and the D. A. R.

There will also be some sniping over the reapportionment and census legislation, the only other two matters dealt with by the president in his inaugural message to the new congress.

Some further embarrassment may be in store for the president in the inquiry under way this morning in the Senate Judiciary committee and concerning the right of Andrew W. Mellon to continue as secretary of the treasury.

The committee proceeded to the investigation under terms of the McKellar resolution which instructed it to report "whether the head of any department of the government may legally hold office after the expiration of the term of the president by whom he was appointed."

Mellon Problem Arises

This was the outgrowth of Mr. Hoover's failure to re-submit Mellon's name along with other cabinet members on March 4. Mr. Hoover knew there would be a savage light on Mellon's confirmation, and shrewdly refrained from submitting the name.

The McKellar resolution went further—it also instructed the committee to ascertain "whether in view of the provisions of the laws of the United States, Andrew W. Mellon may legally hold the office of secretary of the treasury."

This was in reference to Mellon's wide reputation holdings and interests, and that federal statute which specifies the secretary of the treasury shall not engage in trade and commerce.

If the committee should decide that Mellon's name had to be re-submitted or that he was ineligible to hold office because of his business connections, it would be a matter of grave embarrassment to Mr. Hoover.

Only the House met today. The Senate adjourned over until tomorrow to give the farm blocs opportunity to wrangle themselves out of the debenture plan fight. Administration leaders predict passage of a farm bill in both houses within two weeks, but they are none too sanguine.

be procured, and an east and west road, both unimproved probably would be abandoned.

In the event council decides that the city's financial condition makes it inexpedient for the city to undertake the development of the Butler project, the committee advises that it has information to the effect that private capital, both local and out of town, may easily be interested in the purchase of the property and the development of the project.

Other Investigations

This proposal would include reasonable terms and conditions to be mutually agreed upon by the city and the promoters, for delivery of the water to the city. It further offers to sell the property to the city at any future time at the cost of acquiring and developing it.

The projects known as Cold Run Mill creek, Cherry Valley run, Georgetown and the middle fork of the Little Beaver were eliminated by the engineer on account of their high initial cost and high cost of operation.

The Yates project, near the golf club, and the Whinnery run, west of the city, were eliminated because of the high cost and because the available supply of water was found to be far too small for a domestic and industrial supply for Salem.

Quality Excellent

The quality of the Butler project water is excellent, soft and relatively free from turbidity except after heavy storms, the engineer reports. It is desirable, however, he adds that it should be purified before domestic use. The rain water is exceptionally good for industrial purposes, and this need is stressed in the committee report.

The dam would be 35 feet high above the thread of the stream, 31 feet above the general floor of the valley, and give a five foot free-board from crest of spillway to crest of dam.

In concluding its report, the committee says that the Butler project would provide an adequate supply of pure, soft water, including emergencies that may arise, and that "the city of Salem and its inhabitants will benefit by a substantial reduction in water rentals as compared with the rentals now effective in the city."

The committee's report in full will be found in another part of this issue.

DIVORCE ASKED AFTER 16 YEARS

Judge Lones Comments On Decree Granted In Lisbon

Lisbon, April 17.—Lee Smith, a car repairman's helper employed by the Pennsylvania railroad Co., at Wellsville has been sued for divorce by his wife, Minnie Smith, who in her petition filed by Attorney W. A. O'Grady, declares that her husband is unfaithful. Smith is also charged with adultery.

The couple were married July 16, 1913. Mrs. Smith has also set up in her petition that her husband has struck her, knocked her down and kicked her and has cursed and threatened her.

Judge W. F. Lones in common pleas court late Tuesday afternoon granted a divorce to Sarah Ammon of Wellsville, against her husband, William Ammon, the action being contested and the trial lasting over two days.

In a dictated opinion in this case, the court said: "Both parties seek a divorce, and it is not very important who gets it. The court, however, will grant the decree to the plaintiff, but the order for alimony will not be issued at this time. The custody of the children of the plaintiff is granted her for a period of six months, and she will have to support them herself, and behave herself. She is also to report once a month to Juvenile Officer John McShane."

"I hope that when the parties leave the court they will live better lives. The order of the court as to alimony and custody of children is subject to change on motion filed within six months. The costs are against the plaintiff."

The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Raymond Knepper of Wellsville, and W. A. O'Grady was counsel for the defendant.

Foreclosure Actions Confirmed

In four foreclosure actions that have been pending in common pleas court for several months the court has confirmed sales, ordered deeds and entered an order of distribution. These identical orders have to do with the cases of the Perpetual Savings & Loan Co. against John J. Lamp; Same plaintiff against George W. Runyon and others; Union Savings & Loan Co. against Kate Logan.

A decree of foreclosure has been handed down in the case of the Perpetual Savings & Loan Co.

GALE SWEEPS EASTERN COAST

Wreckage Strwn Along Seaboard Tells Tale; Shipping Hit

New York, April 17.—The entire east coast of the United States was swept by a gale of wind and rain, with a heavy snowfall in the lower bay—this was the picture drawn yesterday following a whipping 60-mile gale, accompanied by rain and snow, which swept the eastern seaboard yesterday.

The gale lashed harbor waters to a frothing fury and small craft hurried for safe anchorages, three barges, loaded with cargoes of oil, coal and molasses foundered in the harbor. The tank steamer Agwior was damaged when her anchor dragged, forcing her to ram a pier, and the tugboat Perth Amboy III was sunk when the snapping of a towline cable threw her into the trough of the seas.

GET WELL AND STAY WELL!

Says Health Evangelist

"When I was in Steubenville hundreds of people came to see me, expecting some wonder of healing. Their wonders were accomplished, but not by me. People who were all run down, people whose food failed to nourish them properly, people in the grip of catarrh, weak men, women suffering all the time—all of these visited me," said the Health Evangelist.

"I told them all the same story—that health depended first on getting rid of some distress, thus giving a chance to build up, and then people could stay well, but until the cause of sickness was removed no one could get well."

"On my suggestion, many of these people began taking World's Tonic. It helps clean their systems of impurities; it helps break catarrh; it invigorates the body, therefore making the weak strong. Literally hundreds found great benefit, and I have letters from many people in Steubenville telling me of the good health that followed this great nerve medicine."

"I wanted these people to stay well. No use getting back into the old state. For that reason I urge them never to be without World's Tonic. Take a few doses whenever things are not right, and thus stay well."

"To the many other suffering people in Salem I want to leave this message: World's Tonic helped hundreds of your neighbors. Its body building properties will help you. Don't neglect your health! Get well and stay well!"

World's Tonic is sold by J. H. Lane and all other good druggists. (A-109)

WATER REPORT

building of a new pumping station, therefore, this report deals only with the obtaining of a new source of supply and the delivery of the water by gravity to the filter plant.

"The present well supply is not very satisfactory on account of the hardness and large mineral content of the ground water and the possibility of building it up to the necessary capacity is remote and would be very expensive. In case Salem continues the use of the present well supply, a filter plant of the highest standard should be built to insure the public health and welfare against any recurring of the epidemic of some years ago.

Surface Water Supply.
The projects known as Cold Run, Mill Creek, Cherry Valley Run, Georgetown and the Middle Fork of the Little Beaver were all eliminated on account of their high initial cost and the high cost of operation. The Yates and Whinnery Run Projects, which will be briefly discussed later, were also eliminated on account of the high cost for a limited supply and because the available supply of water was found to be far too small for a domestic and industrial supply for Salem.

"The Cold Run Project is a very satisfactory source of supply. Its estimated cost, more than $500,000 is the lowest of any of the projects mentioned above. Other than the high initial cost, the only objection to this source is the great length of the dam. This condition will require very careful work and probably considerable maintenance to prevent leakage past the dam. Having thus eliminated the possible sources of supply mentioned above, we are finally brought to what is considered the most feasible and economical source of supply.

"The project consists in the development of the upper waters of the North Branch of the Mahoning River, here known as the Butler Project, for the supply of the City of Salem by storage to be created by the erection upon it of a dam, the erection of a purification plant and the transportation of the water from the source by gravity through a pipe line to be laid over public and private rights of way for the delivery of water by gravity at the new coagulating basins of the purification plant.

Population Figures
The present population of Salem is about 11,500. The population found by the U. S. Census follows:

Year	Population
1870	1,899
1880	3,700
1890	4,041
1900	5,780
1910	7,582
1920	10,200

"Estimated future population, taking into consideration the continued use of the present well supply, is as follows:

Year	Population
1930	11,600
1940	13,000
1950	14,400
1960	15,800
1970	17,100

"Estimated Future Population, taking into consideration the obtaining by Salem of an abundant supply of soft and pure water, is as follows:

Year	Population
1930	11,600
1940	14,600
1950	17,700
1960	20,800
1970	23,800

Industrial Needs
The marked differences in the above estimates are based upon the contention that the chances of having industries locate in Salem are very materially increased if they can be guaranteed a plentiful supply of soft water for the economical operation of their plants. The present well supply is hard and would venture to say that several industries, which might have located in Salem, have gone elsewhere on account of the water supply.

Furthermore, the public health and welfare, with a soft and purified supply, will be insured against any danger of serious epidemics. The growth of any city depends largely upon the location of industries in or near that city and the water question is, in most cases, vital to them.

"From figures obtained from the tests recently run, the Salem waterworks is at present pumping an average of 550 gallons per minute for 24 hours a day or approximately 800,000 gallons daily. This is an average of about 70 gallons per capita daily.

Future Demand
Looking forward to the more distant future, 40 years or thereabouts, for which such works would ordinarily be built, an average daily allowance of 2,500,000 gallons would be reasonable. It is desirable, therefore, that the capacity of the new source should be at least 2,500,000 gallons daily.

"The proposed source of supply is the North Branch of the Mahoning River, the Butler Project. The drainage area is rather flat. It is farming country, planted largely to grass and grain with scattered groves of deciduous trees. The character of the drainage area is well adapted to water supply purposes. The possible points of division are at such an elevation as to make supply by gravity possible.

"The storage reservoir has been surveyed, and a map of same has been made (Scale 1"=100'). This survey and map were made for the purpose of obtaining an accurate estimate of the impounding capacity of the proposed reservoir, which is one of the essential factors in determining the daily capacity.

use. The raw water is exceptionally good for industrial purposes.

3,000,000 Gallons
The quantity of water available is substantially in excess of the probable future demand. The most advantageous site for this development has a drainage area above it of 51-4 square miles, at which point an available storage of 116 billion gallons can be economically created. This will yield a supply of about 3,000,000 gallons daily. Ample allowances have been made for loss by seepage and evaporation. The watershed could be increased to 61-2 square miles, however, this would not be necessary until Salem was using in the neighborhood of 2.5 million gallons per day.

"The proposed dam site is a good one, and is located about 1.5 miles south of the State Road between Columbiana and Mahoning counties. It is proposed to build at this site an earth dam with a concrete core-wall and cut-off of Lackawanna interlocking steel sheet piling. The upstream earth will be protected by stone paving and the spillway will be constructed of concrete masonry. Estimated cost about $110,000. The clearing of reservoir is estimated at $7600.

Bed of Creek Elev. 1200 U. S. Geological
Floor of Valley Elev. 1204 U. S. Survey
Crest of Spillway Elev. 1230 U. S. Survey
Crest of Dam Elev. 1235 U. S. Survey

"This will make the dam 35 feet above the stream floor, 31 feet high above the general floor of the Valley, and give a 5 foot freeboard from crest of spillway to crest of dam.

"Summary of principal data. Following is a summary of the principal data in regard to the Butler Project, located on the North Branch of the Mahoning River.

- 1—Drainage Area—51-4 Sq. Miles.
- 2—Area of Water Surface, Elev. 1230—384 Acres.
- 3—Length of Dam—1050 Feet.
- 4—Flow Line Elevation—1230.
- 5—Storage Capacity—1.31 Billion Gals.

6—Content above elevation 1215—1.10 Billion Gals.
7—Daily Capacity—3 Million Gals.
8—Maximum Depth of Water—25 Feet.
9—Average Depth of Water—10 Feet.
10—Percentage of Flooded Area 28% covered 5 feet deep or less.

Gravity Pipe Line
A pipe line 16 inches in diameter will be required for the delivery of water by gravity to the coagulating basins at the purification plant. The available head between the proposed new filter plant about elevation 1160 (U. S. Geological Survey) and the crest of the spillway at elevation 1230 is 70 feet and when the available storage has been exhausted elevation 1215, it is 55 feet. The fall or slope in 8600 feet, estimated length of pipe line will vary, therefore, from 8.140 feet to 6.295 feet per 1000 feet. The gravity pipe line can most advantageously be built of Class "A" cast iron pipe and will weigh about 108 pounds per linear foot of pipe. If surrounded with suitable material, such as clay and not subject to the action of acid water, it should have a life of 80 years or more.

"The maximum carrying capacity of the 16 inch gravity pipe line when new will be in the neighborhood of five million gallons daily and when twenty-five years old probably about four million gallons daily. The cost of the pipe line laid is estimated at $3.75 per linear foot, making the total cost for 8600 feet $32,250.

"Purification Plant. The proposed purification plant will have a capacity of two million gallons daily. At any future date additional units can be added to the filter plant to meet the required needs. The estimated cost of construction of the purification plant is $55,000.00. An ideal and economical layout would be attained by locating the filter plant and the new pumping station in the vicinity of the disposal plant, as has been suggested by Mr. Barkhoff, your City Engineer.

Conclusions.
"It appears reasonable to conclude that—
"The present well supply is not very satisfactory, on account of the hardness of the ground water and the possibility of building it up to the necessary capacity is remote and would be very expensive.
"The project to supply a clear, soft, relatively unpolluted water to the citizens of Salem should be attractive to them.

"The project to develop the North Branch of the Mahoning River, here known as the Butler Project, as a source of supply is sound from engineering, economic and competitive viewpoints.
In conclusion, the remaining members of the committee desire to acknowledge the valuable services rendered and assistance given by the late Robert C. Garrison who gave unsparsingly of his time in order to make the investigation on the part of the water committee a thorough and dependable one.

Unanimous Opinion
Your committee is unanimously of the opinion that the project as submitted is a feasible and reasonable one and that it constitutes a program for development of the city of Salem and the welfare of all its inhabitants and respectfully recommends to your honorable body and to the other officers of the municipality, the taking of the necessary steps and the passage of the required legislation to carry the proposed plan into execution.

After you shall have given due consideration to this report, if council should arrive at the conclusion that the present financial condition of the city makes it inexpedient for the city to undertake the development of the Butler Project as a part of the municipal water plant, then, and in that event, the committee desires to inform your honorable body that it is in possession of information to the effect that private capital, both local and out of town, may easily be interested in the purchase of the property and the development of the project on reasonable terms and conditions to be mutually agreed upon by the city of Salem and such interested parties.

Private Venture
That the individuals referred to are thoroughly satisfied with the soundness and feasibility of the Butler Project and are ready and willing, at an early date, to enter into an agreement with the City of Salem by the terms of which they will acquire the property and complete the entire project and deliver the water in a raw state to the City of Salem at such point as may be designated in said agreement; and said agreement to be further conditioned that the City of Salem, may, on reasonable notice to the owners of the Project, purchase the same at the cost of acquiring the property and developing the same.

Your committee is thoroughly convinced from information obtained from thoroughly reliable sources that if the Butler Project be completed, either by the city, as part of its municipal water plant, or by private individuals under an agreement such as has been suggested, that an adequate supply of pure, soft water will, in that manner, be provided for all purposes, including emergencies that may arise, and that the city of a Salem and its inhabitants will benefit by a substantial reduction in water rentals as compared with the rentals now effective in the city.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. DUNN
C. W. KAMINSKY,
W. L. STRAIN,
F. J. EMENY.

203 ARRESTED IN POLICE RAID

"Naughty Party" Stopped By Arrival of Officers; 3 Dancers Taken

Cleveland, April 17.—Three girl dancers and 203 men were arrested and held for investigation when police raided what they say was a "naughty party" on the east side here early today.

Inspector Martin Horrigan succeeded in gaining admission tickets, at $3 each for two of his men. They related that the entertainment consisted of some improper motion picture films and dances by the girls.

When the party was at its peak the two officers on the inside signalled to a waiting police squad across the street. Two of the dancers escaped via a fire escape but were picked up later in a downtown hotel. A number of the guests at the "party" are said to have been prominent professional men.

Veteran Hurlers Turn In Stellar Performances For Openers

Youth Fans Thin Air In Two Games

Alexander and Grimes Show Real Stuff In Victories

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 17.—Baseball being a young man's game and there being no argument about it, perhaps it isn't worth mentioning today that two of the four games featuring the semi-inaugural of the major league season yesterday were won by a couple of citizens who were young even before you and I.

Barleigh Grimes, a pitcher for sixteen of his thirty six years, and poor, old doddering Alexander, starting his twentieth season in baseball at the tender age of forty-two, simply could do no better than usual. All they could do was win.

Alexander obliged with a typical effort, turning a five-hit game against the Reds, and Grimes added a dish of apple fritters to the "must be served" menu by striking Mr. Hornsby's Cubs right out for the first seven innings. Youth, as a matter of fact, was served yesterday. It was served with an assortment of first class pitching all day long and today it could take the blindfold test with its eyes open.

Find Good Explanation
Of course, there is perfectly good explanation for Alexander's performance. Everybody knows that extreme care and barber's lotion have kept him young all these years.

Outside of these pertinent developments, yesterday's 50-proof opening, with the entire east rained out, was worthy of attention only because it furnished further evidence to baseball that it can't play a 154-game schedule in as many playing days.

Anyway, it will be opening day in the east again this afternoon and just another ball game in the four cities of the west. The latter saw plenty of good pitching yesterday, over and above the performances of Alexander and Grimes. Sam Gray showed tendencies toward resuming his campaign of frightfulness where he left off with the Browns last year by limiting the White Sox to a run and five hits and Whitehill, Shaute and Hudlin at least gave a good average performance during the Indians' eleven-inning decision over the Tigers.

Babe Takes Unto Himself a Bride

New York, April 17.—Babe Ruth, well-known club man, was married at dawn today. It was a quiet ceremony—except for the flashlights. The bride was dark-haired, pretty Mrs. Claire Hodgson, former actress, and was not as tall as George Herman's favorite baseball bat. "I've got a new manager now," said the Babe with a boyish grin after the simple ceremony and low mass at St. Gregory's Roman Catholic church. Then the big fellow kissed his new manager.

Fight Results

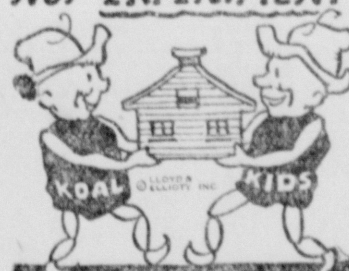

At Minneapolis—Charlie Belanger, Canadian light-heavyweight champion, outpointed Harry Dillon, of Winnipeg (10).
At Wilkes-Barre, Pa.—Tiger Jack Payne, Pacific coast negro, knocked out Johnny Mason, Cincinnati middleweight (4).
At New York—Jimmy Slavin won National Guard featherweight title by knocking out Benny Nabors (6).

At Reading, Pa.—Pat Haley, Philadelphia, outpointed Joe Kuhns, Reading welterweight (8).
Eddie Dempsey, Philadelphia, stopped George Mallick, of Shenandoah, Pa. (6).

STOMACH TROUBLE QUICKLY ROUTED BY NEW KONJOLA

Every Meal Was Source of Suffering—Strict Diet of No Avail—Now Enjoys Perfect Health

MR. H. W. EGGENBERG

"As my health had been failing for some time and a good medicine was needed, I chose Konjola and was rewarded by the restoration of health," said Mr. H. W. Eggenberg, 865 East High Avenue, New Philadelphia.
"I was the victim of stomach trouble, and after each meal partly digested food formed a heavy, sodden mass in the pit of my stomach. Gas fermented and indigestion pains added their agonies to my other suffering.
"As the medicine for my system, I decided upon Konjola and now wish to say that the results were far beyond my expectations. I recently finished the full treatment—six bottles—and my stomach is functioning perfectly. I can eat anything I wish without suffering afterward. My bowels have been regulated and invigorated. I feel sure that Konjola has saved me from some serious trouble, and I am glad to be able to add my name to the already long lists of life-long friends of Konjola."
Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. H. Lease drug stores and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

In Playhouses Of Salem

The Hickville Follies, and the great screen feature, "Revenge" go into their third night's showing at the Grand theatre this evening. The stage review, composed of a group of music-makers, dancers, and singers is declared a hit in itself, but the captivating Gypsy role of Dolores Del Rio in the picture is the bill's outstanding event.

Both features will be at the Grand for the final showing Thursday night.

At the Royal Sally O'Neil and William Collier give the first showing of "Floating College" tonight, while scheduled for the final appearance here at the State, is "Chinatown Nights."

"Floating College" continues at the Royal Thursday, as does "Revenge" and the Follies, but the week's biggest vehicle, the famous picturization of the gold rush on the Yukon, "The Trail of '98" opens at the State that evening.

grin and adorable nose, and young William Collier, Jr., whom most of the world calls Buster, may be seen at the Royal theatre in "The Floating College."

It is a collegiate picture about some kids and a cruise round the world. It is a riotous mélange of the younger generation's activities, the action occurring partly on land before the beginning of the cruise, and partly against such exotic backgrounds as an ocean liner and a Chinese port provide.

"CHINATOWN NIGHTS"

There is more mystery in one Chinese standing in a shadowy Chinatown doorway than in most of the mystery stories ever written. And in "Chinatown Nights" there are more than five hundred Chinese revealed in all the intriguing and little known business of their powerful towns.

"Chinatown Nights" is a picture for everyone who loves drama, excitement and mystery. The suspense and action of the picture are excellently handled and the revelation of the inscrutable practices of Chinese long life are surprising. A superior cast of screen artists enact this superb drama. Wallace Berry, Florence Vidor, Warner Oland and Jack Oakie head the cast of noted screen players. The picture was directed by William A. Wellman, the man who made "Wings" a success. "Chinatown Nights" is the story of a white boy of Chinatown who wins the love of a white society woman. She sacrifices everything for him but, not until she is dragged down into the mire of the Chinese underworld, does he awaken to his love for her.

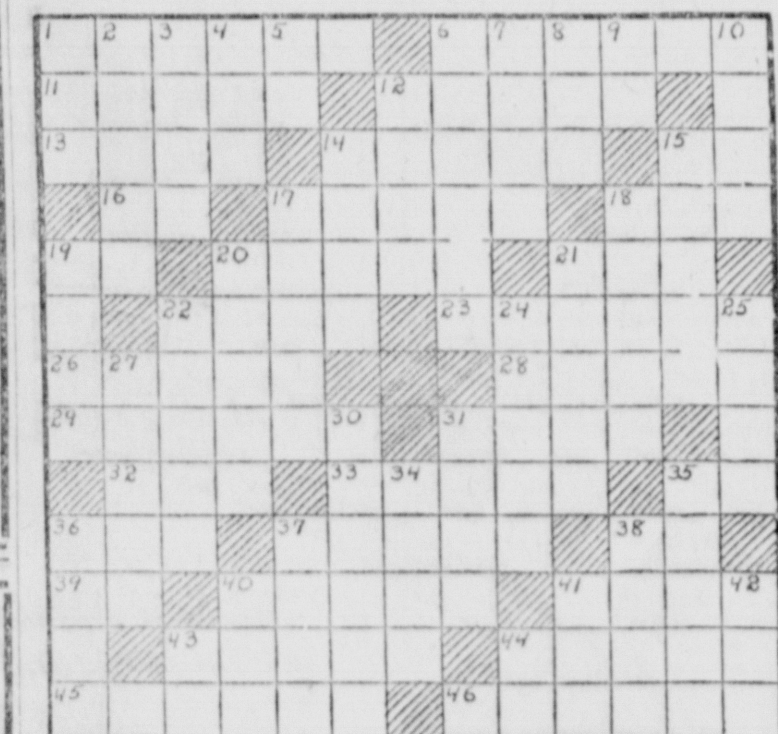

"REVENGE"

"Revenge" is heralded as probably the most unusual moving picture of the new season. It is filled with thrills, dramatic moments, intrigue, love and romance. Scenes showing as many as one hundred bears, some wild and others tame are common throughout the early part of the picture.

Miss Del Rio has one of the greatest parts ever offered to her in the colorful gypsy girl who despised men and bears because they became as docile as lambs under her fiery dominance.

Miss Del Rio has a cast of well-known players appearing in her support in "Revenge." Larry Mason is Jorge, Jose Crespo, the Spanish film star is the rival lover and Rita Carewe, the producers daughter, popular in her own right, enacts the jealous Tina, hated enemy of Rascha, James Marcus, Sam Appel, Marta Golden, Jess Cavin and Sophia Ortega head the remaining cast which includes hundreds of colorfully garbed gypsies.

By Wanda Barton

Fly-swating isn't an inevitable indoor sport. If, at the beginning of the warm season, the house is thoroughly screened against the invaders, there shouldn't be any kind of a flying insect in the place all summer.

But who hasn't heard the annual wail, "Look at those flies—and after we've spent all that money on screens!" The secret of complete protection is complete screening. No use doing that job half-heartedly. If one little aperture is overlooked, the little nuisances are sure to find it and crash in. Screen everything or you might just as well screen nothing.

Of course, windows are the obvious openings which must be screened. And if you use last year's screens—as most of us do—be sure they are in good condition. A little hole or two—and the work is nullified. Screen doors must be hung

LUMBAGO QUICKLY ROUTED BY OWA-TON-NA

Mr. A. R. Schlemmer So Well Pleased With Results, He Advises Wife To Use This Remedy

If you have ever been doubled up with a severe attack of lumbago and know the excruciating pains that sometimes accompany this condition often getting so bad that it puts you to bed for days at a time unable even to sit up, you can understand the remarkable change that Mr. A. R. Schlemmer, 1629 Rowland Ave. NE, Canton, found in Owa-Ton-Na.

Mr. Schlemmer says: "I suffered no end of terrible misery with lumbago until I took Owa-Ton-Na. I was always constipated, headaches at times almost set me crazy and I was continually tired and worn out. My joints were aching and many days I had trouble getting myself straightened out."

"This Owa-Ton-Na Indian Herb Remedy certainly does all that is claimed for it. I could hardly believe that any one medicine could do for me what Owa-Ton-Na has done. I had tried so many different things—one after another but they seemed to have little effect on my condition. Owa-Ton-Na has done more for me than all the other medicines I ever took put together."

"Why I feel like a different man and that back doesn't give me any trouble at all. The headaches are gone, my bowels are acting regularly and I have more pep and energy than I have had in a long time. Owa-Ton-Na has done so much for me that my wife is now taking it. I know it will help her as it has done so much for me and I am recommending it to all my friends."

You, too, may find in Owa-Ton-Na

MR. A. R. SCHLEMMER

Na just the medicine you have been looking for. Its action on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels makes it an invaluable aid in disorders arising from these organs. Rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness and general run down condition of health are eliminated with its use. Why hesitate another day in giving this harmless remedy a good trial! It has helped thousands and you too, even though your condition is one of long standing, will be benefited. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Flogging, J. H. Lease and Bolger & French drug stores.—Adv.

AUTO OWNERS! READ THIS!

In January, this year, the rates were decreased on Automobile Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance. This is not mutual or reciprocal, but first class stock casualty company insurance. If you own any property, you can't afford to be without this class of insurance. Beside that, you owe the public a duty which this type of insurance provides.
